However, the Bank may disclose information concerning a Customer or its transactions or accounts when it is required to do so by a Court of law or when it has been authorised by the Customer or in the performance of its duties or in order to comply with any provision of law whether locally or internationally.

18. DISCLOSURE

The Customer hereby authorises the Bank to disclose any information relating to him or his transactions or accounts to:

a) Any guarantor of, or third party provider of security for, the Customer or its account(s) with the Bank in respect of any banking facility or service provided by the Bank to the Customer; or

b) Any actual or potential assignee, participant or contractual party in connection with any rights or obligations of the Bank in relation to the Customer.

c) Local and International regulators, Credit Information Bureaus and service providers of the Bank.

19. PRINCIPLES OF LIABILITY

In the performance of its obligations, the Bank shall only be liable for the wilful default or gross negligence on the part of its staff. In the event that the Customer has contributed to the occurrence of the loss by the Customer's own fault (e.g. by violating the duties as mentioned in these Conditions), the principles of contributory negligence shall determine the extent to which the Bank and the Customer shall have to bear the loss.

20. INDEMNITY

The Customer shall indemnify the Bank against any or all claims, demands, actions, damages, liabilities, costs, losses, expenses and other sums which the Bank may incur or suffer in connection with or arising from giving credit or other banking facilities to the Customer or performing any banking service for the Customer, and shall reimburse the Bank upon demand for any such payment which may be made or incurred by the Bank by reason thereof. The Customer will indemnify the Bank for any loss incurred by the Bank resulting from the fact that the Bank without any wilful default on its part does not obtain knowledge of any restrictions of the Customer's or his representative's legal capacity.

21. PRESCRIPTION

All monies due by the Customer to the Bank in respect of a loan and interest thereon shall be recoverable from the Customer notwithstanding the Prescription Ordinance (Cap. 68) and the Customer agrees that he shall not plead the Prescription Ordinance (Cap. 68) as a bar to the Bank suing the Customer for the recovery of the said monies.

22. FORCE MAJEURE

The Bank shall not be liable for any loss nor inability to perform, caused by or in connection with any event of force majeure including but not limited to riot, war, natural disaster, any circumstance beyond the Bank's control or other occurrences for which the Bank is not responsible (e.g. strikes, lock-outs, traffic hold – ups, civil commotion, acts of domestic or foreign governmental or other authorities (whether de lure or de facto), requirements of any law or regulation, market disruption, or any act of learning settlement agency or central depository.

23. INFORMATION AND NOTICES

a) The Customer shall notify the Bank without delay in writing of any changes in the Customer's name, address and other particulars, as well as the termination of, or amendment to any powers of representation towards the Bank conferred on any person (in particular, a power of attorney) or the authority of any person, this notification duly also applies to any change to the particulars of the Customer in any public register and also exists where the power of representation are recorded in such public register and any termination thereof of any amendments thereto are entered in that register.

b) All information regarding the trade, business or occupation and financial condition or any material change in respect thereto of the Customer will be furnished by the Customer to the Bank.

c) Particulars of any litigation or potential litigation which may tend to affect the Customer's financial capacity shall be disclosed by the Customer to the Bank.

d) The Bank is entitled at its discretion and without liability to send any notice, correspondence, instrument or document to the Customer by ordinary post, hand, telex or facsimile or email (to the last known address, telex number or facsimile number or email address of the Customer known to the Bank), and any such communication shall be deemed to have been received by the Customer two days after posting (if local), five days after posting (if overseas), at the time of transmission (if by telex or facsimile or email) or upon delivery (if by hand).

24. TERMINATION

I. Termination right of the Customer

Unless the Bank and the Customer have otherwise agreed in writing to a termination provision, the Customer may at any time, with reasonable prior written notice, terminate the contract as a whole or any particular contract arising out of the duly signed and accepted Mandate. Provided however, that any such termination shall not affect the rights which have accrued to the Bank prior to such termination.

II. Termination rights of the Bank

a) Termination upon Notice

Upon giving notice, which in the Bank's opinion is reasonable, the Bank may at any time terminate any contract as whole or any particular contract arising out of the duly signed and accepted Mandate. For which neither a term nor a termination provision has been agreed in writing. In determining the notice period, the Bank will whenever practical take into account the known legitimate concerns of the Customer.

b) Termination of loans and facilities with no fixed term

Loans, or credit or banking facilities/commitments for which neither a fixed term nor a termination provision has been agreed in writing may be terminated at any time by the Bank in its discretion without prior notice.

c) Termination for reasonable cause without notice

Termination of the business relationship as a whole or of a particular relation arising out of the duly signed and accepted Mandate, without notice, is permitted if there is reasonable cause, which makes it unacceptable to the Bank to continue the business relationship after having given due consideration to the known legitimate concerns of the Customer.

d) Settlement following termination

Upon termination of the relationship or facilities, all amounts and obligations owing by the Customer to the Bank shall become due and payable immediately on demand and all foreign echange and other derivative transactions between the Bank and the Customer shall be terminated early at the Bank's discretion and become due and payable at the then market value as determined by the Bank. In respect of any outstanding future or contingent liability of the Customer to the Bank, the Customer shall immediately provide sufficient cash cover for the same on such terms, as the Bank may require.

e) Saving Rights

Termination by the Bank of any contract as a whole or of a particular relation under any of the provisions above stated shall not affect the rights which have accrued to the Bank prior to such termination.

25. ASSIGNMENT

The Bank shall have the right to assign any or all of its rights hereunder to another party without obtaining the prior approval from the Customer.

26. INVALIDITY OF PROVISIONS

If at any time, any provision hereof becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect such illegality, invalidity or unenforceability shall not impair or affect the remaining provisions hereof.

27. WAIVER

No forbearance, neglect or waiver by the Bank of any of these Terms and Conditions in respect of a particular instance or occurrence shall prejudice the Bank's rights thereafter to strictly enforce the same. No waiver by the Bank shall be effective unless it is in writing.

28. JURISDICTION AND GOVERNING LAW

a) Place of Jurisdiction

Without prejudice to the Bank's rights to proceed against the Customer in any other country or in any other Court, the Customer irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Court of Sri Lanka (The Bank itself maybe sued only before the courts of Sri Lanka).

b) Substantive Law

The business relationship, customer accounts, dealings and transactions envisaged herein and Mandate shall be governed by the Laws of Sri Lanka.
